Warsaw, March 10, N. S.

THE Court has receiv'd News of the entire Concluſion of the Agreement with the Palatin of Kiovy, and that he was preparing for his Journey hither. Count Braniski, with Major General Lewendahl, and M. Simſnis, are expected this Day; and the ſaid Palatin and others, within a Fortnight at fartheſt. A Confirmation is at laſt come from Poſen of the Misfortune the Saxons have had in a Rencounter with the Poles of King Staniſlaus's Party. The Loſs of their Money and other Things is computed at 200,000 Dollars. They had Five or Six Officers kill'd or wounded with about 100 Men, beſides 150 Sick which were cut to Pieces in a Village near Kaliſh by order of the Caſtellan of Czersk; 300 Recruits for Colonel Sibilski have been taken Priſoners, and a conſiderable Quantity of Cloth for the Soldiers ſeized: It is ſaid the Poles loſt in theſe Skirmiſhes about 400 Men. Major General Boſe had march'd a Body of Troops out of Poſen, in order to attack the Poles, but finding they were more in Number than he expected, thought fit to retire, and to poſt his Troops in ſuch a Manner upon the River Warta as he hopes will prevent their paſſing; and we are told that the greateſt Part of them are ſtill about Liſſa, though it is reported they have begun to file off by Thirty or Forty upon the Borders of Sileſia and Pomerania for Poliſh Pruſſia. Prince Weiſſenfels being now arrived at Poſen, to take upon him the Command of all the Saxons in Poland, full Powers are ſent him for his diſpoſing of them as he ſhall think fit. Four Troops of the Staniſlaiſts in Samogitia, are ſaid to have been defeated by a Detachment from General Biſmarſh.

Hague, March 25, N. S. This Day being the Anniverſary of the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs with the Prince of Orange, their Highneſſes received the Compliments of a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction. Her Royal Highneſs is in perfect Health.

Whitehall, Feb. 7, 1734-5.

Whereas on Wedneſday the 29th Day of January laſt in the Evening, ſeveral Perſons armed with Cutlaſhes, Piſtols, and large Oaken Sticks or Staves, violently entred the Dwelling Houſe of John Dawgs, in Wharton Court, in the Pariſh of St. Andrew Holbourn, an Officer of the Sheriff of Middleſex, and aſſaulted and wounded him and his Wife in ſeveral Parts of their Bodies, and very much bruiſed his Servant, and afterwards forcibly reſcued out of his Hands James Pender and John Harvey, two Priſoners for Debt, whom he had taken into Cuſtody by proper Proceſs at Law: His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above-mentioned Facts, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the ſaid Perſons, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement, his Majeſty is alſo pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds for every one of the Criminals who ſhall be diſcovered and apprehended as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. And likewiſe the Sum of Fifty Pounds for the retaking and conveying each of them the ſaid James Pender and John Harvey to the County Goal where they ſhall be taken.
